Christy Henry

Christy Henry of Graves County Kentucky claims first-inductee honors among Southeastern’s women basketball players. She was also SIC’s first lady All-American, two years running. She was All-State and a Kentucky All-Star in high school. At the time of induction, the six-foot forward/guard ranked as the third highest women’s scorer at SIC, amassing 1200 total points.