

Credit Hours – Course credits are recorded in semester credit hours. The number of semester hours of credit in each course is shown in the course description in the college catalog. A normal student load is fifteen (15) semester hours per semester. However, a full-time student may take between twelve (12) and nineteen (19) per semester. A student enrolled in eleven (11) semester hours or less is considered part-time. Based upon a student’s previous performance, a counselor may recommend a heavier or lighter load. Students on scholastic probation and suspension must abide by the policies related to coursework. A student wishing to take more than nineteen (19) hours per semester may do so only with written permission of the Executive Dean of Student Services.
